BUCKMASTER TO PLAY HERE.

Tourney at San Francisco Fair.

Walter S. Buckmaster, England's best polo player, who refused to join Lord Wimborne's team for the international match, will be seen in America next year, according to J. Cheever Cowdin and John Barnes Miller, who returned from a missionary tour on the Aquitania yesterday. These poloists went from the Pacific coast to secure teams from abroad for the uni-versal polo tournament to be held at the Buckmaster has agreed to come over as the leader of the famous Old Cantabs, and in the lineup with him will be G. E. and in the lineup with him will be G. E. Belville, late of the Sixteenth Lancers, F. M. Freake and Lord Wodehouse. The Duke of Westminster will send a team, including Rivvy and Francis Grenfeil and the Earl of Rocksavage. There will be another English team with the Earl of Pembroke, Lord Alastair Innes-Ker, Lord Tweedmouth and another in the lineup. It is possible that two other teams, one from the Twelfth Lancers and one from the Scots Grays, will take part in the tournament. The Duke of Westminster intends to charter a ship and send it to Havana with the ponies to await his arrival. With this team and ponies he then will make a trip through the canal to San Francisco.

In taking of the teams that would be supported by the Sirgh and I and trip through the canal to San Francisco.
In talking of the teams that would come for the tournament Mr. Cowdin "In addition to the English teams Col. Honore Cæsar, the representative of the Argentine Republic in London, has promised to bring two teams from his native country, one composed of civilians and one of soldlers. The Compte do Madre has promised two teams—one French and the other Indian. There also will be a team, and possibly two, from Spain."
